ENGLAND'S QUEEN

Celebrates Her Jubilee Year.

INTERESTING ABBEY SERVICES

The Whole World Unites in Acclamations of Praise and Thanksgiving.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

LONDON, June 21.—At an early hour to-day a crowd began to assemble in Westminster Abbey to witness the Jubilee exercises. When the Marquis of Salisbury and Gladstone entered the abbey they were loudly cheered. Many lords and ladies were so anxious to secure their positions that they came without breakfasting. The line of the route was kept clear by nearly 10,000 troops, representing all branches of the service in addition to 600 boys from the naval training ships. In addition to the military, many thousand police were on duty, and a particular feature at the palace was that the two services were equally honored, the Guards lining one side of the roadway at Buckingham Palace gates and on the other side the Blue Jackets were posted. The first of the royal procession was composed of Indian princes and a few minor German princes.

THE QUEEN STARTS.

Punctually at 11 A. M. the Queen in an open carriage emerged from the palace gates. At sight of her thousands of voices were lifted up in cheers. The Queen did not wear state robes, but was dressed in black. Her carriage was drawn by eight ponies. The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Edinburgh and the Duke of Connaught, her sons; the Crown Prince of Germany, the Marquis of Lorne and her other sons-in-law and her grandsons, all rode beside the Queen's coach as a body-guard. The Queen, as she left the palace, smiled and bowed graciously to the people on every side.

REGAL MAGNIFICENCE.

The Queen's carriage was one of chocolate color, the wheels were red and the royal arms in gold were emblazoned upon the panels. Red morocco harness was used for the horses, which were otherwise decorated with royal blue ribbon. All the servants wore state liveries of scarlet and gold. The procession slowly made its way until Wellington arch was reached, then the first introduction to London streets ensued. On the procession nearing the Abbey the troops saluted, guns were fired, bells of churches rang out in merry peals and flags were run up. The cheering was continuous till the Queen passed in at the west door. After passing through the vestibule she was conducted to the grand dais, under the Lanter tower.

SCENE IN THE ABBEY.

The scene in the Abbey when the Queen entered was dazzling. Ten thousand people were seated and they all rose. Women discarded their wraps and revealed the full splendor of their beauty and their attire. Embassadors, the diplomatic corps, members of the House of Commons, members of the reigning families of Europe, representatives of all the leading societies and corporations, of the law, science, art and agriculture and workingmen's representatives from all parts of the kingdom had seats. The Queen was evidently profoundly impressed with the scene. She was noticeably pale when she ascended the dais. She soon, however, recovered, and regained the bright and pleasant aspect she had borne all the morning.

THE ABBEY SERVICES.

The Queen's advent was arranged so that she entered the Abbey precisely at noon. D. G. Bridge, the organist of the Abbey, had for the occasion, specially trained a choir of 250 voices, selected from the great choruses of London. The choir gradually drew the immense congregation into silence and their respective places to be prepared for the Queen's coming, by rendering selections in a manner that made every person within hearing of the great organ eager to catch the softest note. When the Queen reached the Abbey and the royal procession was forming in the marquee outside of the west door, the state trumpeters in gold and crimson uniforms, executed fanfares from the organ loft nearly in the centre of the edifice. When the clergy at the head of the royal procession moved into the church the national anthem was rendered by the organist. The music was thrilling and the audience rose as a unit and lent their ten thousand voices to accompany the choir. The effect was so grand, so profound, that many persons were moved to tears. It was at this movement that the Queen appeared within the doors. Then the singing of the anthem ceased and the processional march from Handel's "Occasional Oratorio" was given by the organist during the progress of the Queen and the royal family to the dais. When they were seated the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Dean of Westminster, who had taken their places within the sacrarium, began the service by asking of God a blessing upon the Queen. "Te Deum laudamus" was then sung by the choir to music composed by the Prince Consort, the Queen having requested it. The Lord's prayer was said and the responses (adapted to the occasion) were intoned. Then three special prayers were offered. Following the prayers, "Exaudeat Te dominus", was sung with organ and brass band accompaniment. The Dean of Westminster advanced to the altar rails and read the lesson for the day. (First Epistle of Peter, Chap. 2, v. 6-18.) Dr. Bridges' special anthem, selected by the Queen last year as her jubilee anthem, was next rendered, followed by a choral, "Gotha," composed by the Prince Consort. In the rests the national anthem was introduced. Two more special prayers for the defense of the faith, spiritual welfare of the kingdom and for peace and love, followed and were supplemented by the benediction, which was pronounced by the Archbishop.

AFTER THE SERVICES.

When the services, which were conducted according to the programme, were completed, the Queen's sons knelt and kissed her hand. Then on their rising she kissed their cheeks in return. The princesses were the next to go through the osculatory exercises. The Queen kissed some of the latter twice, especially was this notable in the cases of the Princess of Wales and Princess Beatrice. This was followed by a general hand-shaking among the royalty and nobility. The princesses wore light dresses. One of the features of the service was the performance of the choir and organ, which was very fine. The effect of the music was enchanting and at times thrilling to the hearers.

THE RETURN JOURNEY.

During the performance of Athalie the Queen took her departure, returning to Buckingham Palace by the same route she took half a century ago.

At the conclusion of the service the royal cortege returned to Buckingham Palace. Throngs awaited the cortege and repeated the enthusiastic demonstrations which greeted them on their way to the Abbey. The Queen, on her arrival, seemed overcome by the loyalty displayed by her subjects.

A GLITTERING ASSEMBLAGE.

Behind them came a body of Life Guards, and then the Duchess of Buccleuch, Mistress of the Robes, Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, Princess Margaret of Prussia, Prince Alfred of Edinburgh, Princesses Victoria and Sophia of Prussia, Princess Louise of Battenburg, Princess Irene of Hesse, Grand Duchess Elizabeth of Russia, Princesses Maud Victoria and Louise, the hereditary Princesses of Saxe-Meininger, the Duchesses of Albany, Connaught and Edinburgh and Princesses Beatrice, Louise and Christian. The master of the horse rode after the Princesses and immediately preceded the carriage of the Queen. The eight horses that drew her Majesty's carriage were cream-colored. The Queen rode facing the horses and sat alone. The Princess of Wales, Princess Victoria the Queen's oldest child and the wife of the Crown Prince of Germany, occupied the other seat, facing her Majesty. The Princes who rode as escort to the carriage went in the following order: Three abreast, Grand Duke Sergius of Russia, Prince Albert Victor of Wales and Prince William of Prussia, Prince Henry of Prussia, Prince George of Wales and the hereditary Grand Duke of Hesse, the Prince of Saxe-Meihingen, Prince Christian Victor of Schleswig-Holstein and Prince Louis of Battenburg; Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, the Crown Prince of Germany and the Grand Duke of Hesse rode two abreast. Prince Henry of Battenberg, the Marquis of Lorne, Duke of Connaught, the Prince of Wales and Duke of Edinburgh rode alone. This escort, composed as it was entirely of sons, sons-in-laws and grand sons of the Queen, were all brilliantly uniformed and riding magnificent horses elegantly caprisoned. It presented a splendid spectacle and inspired enthusiasm everywhere.

ARRIVAL AT THE PALACE.

The procession reached Buckingham Palace shortly after 8 o'clock, and five minutes later Her Majesty passed into the palace amidst the most tumultuous cheering, with her escort of Generals on either side. The Marquis and Marchioness of Salisbury, who had hurried to the palace by a short route, were present to receive her. The Queen bore the journey well and was seen soon after her return laughing and smiling at the royal children who were upon the main balcony of the palace, and kissing her hands to them.

When the palace gates were thrown open an immense throng extended far away into the Mall beyond even seeing distance of the procession. First came the life guards. Then followed aides-de-camp and royal equerries. After these rode the staff of the Duke of Cambridge. The Queen's ladies in waiting and a number of state officials were next, occupying five carriages.

INCIDENTS.

A number of persons along the route were crushed into insensibility and removed to the hospitals. Quite a number were also overpowered by heat, and the horse ridden by the Marquis of Lorne threw him while the procession was moving along Constitution hill. The Queen stopped her carriage to ask the Marquss if he was injured. He assured her that he was not, but relinquished his place as one of the royal escorts and went to the Abbey by a shorter route.

When the royal procession reached Parliament street it found the roads as densely crowded as before. Over her black costume the Queen wore a white lace gown. Her bonnet was of white netting or lace with an inwrought coronet of diamonds. The procession was closed up by parties of life guards and Indian troops.

CASUALTIES.

The police reports show that fifty persons were admitted to Charing Cross hospital during the day. They had been spectators of the pageant. The majority of had fainted in consequence of the great crush. One man was killed by a horse, and several patients were also admitted to the Westminster hospital suffering from prostration, caused by the heat.

CLEVELAND'S CONGRATULATIONS.

Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, America, to Her Majesty Victoria, Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India.

Great and good Friend:

At this time and on behalf of the people of the United States, I present their sincere felicitations upon the arrival of the fiftieth anniverary of your Majesty's accession to the crown of Great Britain and I but utter the general voice of my fellow countrymen in wishing for your people a prolongation of a reign so marked with advance in popular well being, physical, moral and intellectual. It is justice and not adulation to acknowledge the debt of gratitutude and respect due to your personal virtues for their important influence in producing and causing the prosperous and well-ordered condition of affairs now generally prevailing throughout your dominions. May your life be prolonged, and peace, honor and prosperity bless the people over whom you have been called to rule. May liberty flourish through your empire under just laws, and your government be strong in the affections of all who live under it, and I pray God to have your Majesty in his holy keeping.

Done at Washington this 27th day of May, A. D. 1887.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the President,

THOS. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The Queen's jubilee day was celebrated here by a procession composed of the various British and Orange societies of the city.

CELEBRATION AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The English of this city celebrated the Queen's jubilee with great enthusiasm. Many of the leading English houses closed in honor of the occasion.

AT SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The celebration of Victoria's fiftieth anniversary as Queen occurred at Woodward's Gardens to-day. Caledonian clubs from Stockton, Sacramento, Vallejo, Napa, Santa Rosa and other points of that region of California, together with a large delegation of Cornish miners from Nevada county, arrived in the forenoon and were properly received and escorted by the Caledonians of this city. The Gardens were filled with people early, and from 10 until 2 o'clock children's races and games occurred. At 2 o'clock the literary exercises took place. The chief address was delivered by Rev. Robert McKenzie. At night there were recitations, music and dances by Highland organizations in costume.

ANTI-JUBILEE CELEBRATION.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Under the auspices of the Clan-Na-Gael a meeting was held at Cooper's Union to-night. The reading desk was covered with black velvet and the stage was draped in mourning. Statistics showing the number of deaths of Irishmen in exile, in dungeons, on the scaffold and of famine during Queen Victoria's reign were prominently displayed and on black bordered badges worn by the ushers were the words "Fifty years of misery for Ireland." The attendance was large and resolutions were adopted protesting against the desecration of American soil by jubilee demonstrations.

During the fifty years of her reign millions of the Irish race were destroyed by artificial famine; driven out of their own land or to death on the scaffold. After denouncing the coercion act the resolutions conclude with the assurance moral, financial and if necessary physically to support the Irish in whatever measure of resistance they may seek to adopt to save themselves from complete extermination. Speeches were made and a parody on the jubilee ode was read.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

PARIS, June 21.—The Journal des Debats in an article on the Jubilee celebration says: "We cordially envy the Englishmen, and would give a great deal could we ever be what they are to-day—a people mad with joy and happiness. The universal homage is paid not only to the Queen, but to the woman who has given an example of two great virtues of royalty—gravity and dignity. Her influence has been great and salutary, and her great merit is that in using her prerogative for the public weal she has never been tempted to strain its exercise."

GERMAN COMMENTS.

BERLIN, June 21.—The Post says: "What makes Germany a sympathetic onlooker at the Jubilee is the plentitude of events which have crowded the last half a century. This is a period of importance in the world's history, not only for Englishmen, but the whole civilized world. The English people will feel that they have great reason for gratitude, which cannot be better expressed than by the more and more far-sighted and resolute facing of great and inevitable tasks of the future."

The Smallpox.

SACRAMENTO, June 21.—Dr. G. G. Tyrrell, Active Secretary of the State Board of Health, received information to-day that eleven new cases of smallpox have broken out in Ensenada, Lower California, which is not far from the line. Fears are entertained that the disease may be carried over the State line into San San Diego county. Dr. Tyrrell will go to San Francisco in the morning to see about the advisability of having a quarantine placed on the border.

Shortage in Fruit Crops.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Officials of the State Viticultural Board estimate that the grape crop will fall short of that of last year, owing to the fact that the Zinfandels, which constitute nearly two-thirds of the crop, are filling out irregularly. The State Horticultural Board is in receipt of numerous letters speaking of the ravages of the codlin moth on the apple and pear crop, doing the greatest damage in Nevada and Santa Cruz counties.

The Santa Ana Extension.

SAN DIEGO, June 21.—Work was commenced suddenly and with vigor on the extension of the Southern Pacific road from Santa Ana to San Diego yesterday. A large force of laborers is at work grading over the line and building is now progressing rapidly.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Whitelaw Reid Coming.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune, started from that city for California last night. He will remain here with his family during the summer.

A New Steamship Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Carlos Irigoyen, formerly of Guatemala, has been appointed chief agent of a new Spanish steamship line, with headquarters in this city.

Rhode Island.

A pretty little farce is being enacted in Rhode Island, to which the attention of Honest John Sherman is especially called. The last session of the Legislature provided that in April next the electors of the state shall vote on the proposition to call a constitutional convention. A similar proposition was submitted in 1853, and the electors voted not to call a convention. The point of the joke lies in the fact that but little more than one-third of the adult male population of the state are voters under the present constitution. The population of Rhode Island is 304,284. This would give, on the usual computation, 60,000 voters. The actual vote at the last presidential election was about 21,000. The electors, therefore, do not probably number more than 25,000, out of a male adult population of 60,000. It is to this body of 25,000 that the convention proposition is to be submitted. It is expected that a majority of this solid band of 25,000 voters will vote against the convention on the expectation that that body, should it meet, would remove the property qualification on the right of suffrage. As Rhode Island has been kept steadily in the Republican list of States by its privileged voters, the question arises if a different result might not have been secured if the suffrage had been free in several of the States that cast their electoral votes for him. The principle is much the same in both cases, though the method is different. Rhode Island is made Republican by limiting the election to tax-payers, while South Carolina and other Southern States are made Democratic, as alleged, by intimidation and an undue exercise of influence over voters.—[S. GENERAL NEWS.

Collapse of the Fidelity National Bank.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE LAW.

The Railway Commission Overhauling the Affairs of the Union Pacific.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

CINCINNATI, June 21.—The Fidelity National Bank closed this morning. This is the bank the officials of which have been credited with being heavily involved in the collapsed Chicago wheat deal. It is understood that the bank examiner has notified the directors that the speculative officials would have to leave. The investigation into the bank's affairs was prompted by one of the largest stockholders, but when he demanded sight of the securities and loan collaterals two weeks ago, President Harper refused to let him see them. A government investigation followed. The police are guarding the doors of the bank.

A RECEIVER APPOINTED.

The bank examiner has announced that, owing to impairment of the bank's resources, the government would take charge of the bank. John R. Decamp, Vice-President of the Metropolitan National Bank, has been appointed receiver to close up the business of the bank. It is now stated that clearing-house settlements for the past few days have shown an unusual drain on the bank's resources. Besides this, many banks have kept their checks out of the clearing-house as a favor.

THE BANK'S BOOKS.

It has been ascertained that the liabilities of the bank, exclusive of the capital stock, are about $5,500,000; individual deposits are about $2,500,000.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

The Union National Bank of Cleveland this afternoon brought suit in attachment against the Fidelity National Bank to recover $67,331.44, asserting that the defendant corporation had fraudulently and criminally incurred the obligation for which suit has been brought. At 4 o'clock this afternoon under affidavits drawn by Assistant United States District Attorney and sworn to by Bank Examiner Howell, a deputy marshall went to the Fidelity Bank and arrested Vice-President E. L. Harper, Cashier Addie Baldwin, and Assistant Cashier Benjamin E. Hopkins. They were taken before United States Commissioner Hooper, where they gave bonds for their future appearance. Mr. Harper's bond was fixed at $75,000, and the other two at $10,000 each.

The affidavit against Harper charges that he "did on or about June 15th unlawfully and wilfully misapply funds and credits of the Fidelity National Bank Association and did issue certificates of deposit without the authority of the directory of said association and with intent deferred, to wit: one certificate for $300,000 and one for $200,000. The affidavit against Baldwin makes a similar charge, fixing the date at June 13th and papers and a draft for $10,000. Hopkins' affidavit charges him with having on on about June 13th unlawfully issued a certain draft or certificate of deposit for large sums of money, to wit: $400,000, with intent of defrauding said association. These affidavits follow the language of section 5209, United States Statutes. The penalty described therein is imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than five years nor more than ten. This bond action by the government authorities is regarded as having been taken after the discovery of evidence sufficient to justify it, and finds very general commendation, although it appears to honored business men that there is no doubt that the transaction referred to relates to the recent wheat deal in Chicago.

THE UNION PACIFIC.

Investigation into Its Workings by the Commission.

OMAHA, June 21.—General Traffic Manager Thos. L. Kimball, of the Union Pacific, was examined by the Pacific Railway Commission to-day regarding the subject of defeating legislation hostile to the company. He had generally undertaken to persuade the legislators that such legislation was not for the interest of their constituents. He did not know of the use of money by the company to influence legislation. Members of legislatures equally had free passes offered them, and if not offered they would ask for them—especially the anti-monopoly members, whom he defined as members who believed everything justifiable to defeat whatever was wanted by the railroad company. In reply to a question Kimball admitted that he had sometimes influenced the nomination of the election or defeat of candidates. Where men were nominated expressly for the purpose of attacking the interest of the road they felt justified in doing everything possible legitimately to defeat them. In some such cases he had used money, not the company's money, but his own, and during some campaign of the past he might have paid some expense for the company, but his practice had been his own political bills. He had at times requested but not instructed the employes to vote in the interests of the company.

CONSTRUCTION MILEAGE.

Witness was examined at great length on "construction mileage," and the relation of the Union Pacific to its branches. Without those branches he maintained the Union Pacific would be bankrupt in a year. He denied that the main line had by the plan observed been made to contribute to the support of its branches. James W. Davis, of Omaha, one of the contractors who supplied ties for the construction of the Union Pacific testified that the ties cost 60 to 90 cents apiece. On being informed that Jay Gould had testified that some of them cost $5 apiece, he said Gould was misinformed. Davis said "he was by the rascally injunction of the orders of Tweed's creatures in New York courts swindled out of $200,000, which would have been his profits on the Union Pacific contract."

Native Americans.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The Patriotic Sons of America began a three days' convention here to-day. The society is patriotic, social, fraternal and limited to native born Americans. According to the statement of the Secretary the membership has increased during the past two years from 40,000 to 175,000. Most of the delegates have come instructed to have planks inserted in the platform against unlimited immigration and in favor of an educational qualification for suffrage.

A Fitting Commemoration.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the Church of the Holy Innocents, this morning, for the repose of the souls of the 1,200,000 Irish who died of starvation during the reign of Queen Victoria. Rev. Dr. John Larkin acted as celebrant.

Arrested on Suspicion.

HOUSTON, Texas, June 21.—News reached here that three men had been arrested to-day in Lavaca county, on the line of the Southern Pacific, on suspicion of their being a portion of the gang that robbed the train near Flatonia recently. They have been taken to Latonia for identification.

Chinese on a Strike.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Over 400 Chinese laundry employés struck for higher wages yesterday. They wanted $4.00 instead of $3 50 a week and the washers wanted $2.50 instead of $2.00. A few bosses of laundries accepted the terms through sheer necessity.

Beecher's Successor.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Rev. Chas. Stowe, son of Harriet Beecher Stowe and nephew of Henry Ward Beecher, has been selected to succeed the deceased pulpit orator as pastor of Plymouth church.

Eight People Drowned.

CLEVELAND, June 21.—During a squall on Lake Erie last night, the steam barge H. Walker capsized and eight out of twelve people aboard were drowned.

Santa Fe's Land Register.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The President to-day appointed Joseph H. Falker, of Raton, N. M., to be Register of the land office at Santa Fe.

COOKED BY STEAM.

The Horrible Death of a Railway Engineer.

SAN DIEGO, June 21.—A terrible railroad accident occurred on the California Southern railroad last night or early this morning. A freight train bound up was ditched by the spreading of the rails at a point five miles this side of Perris. Engineer George Stone was caught beneath his engine and was cooked to death by escaping steam, the train hands who could see him and hear his cries of agony being powerless to release him. So far as can be learned no one else was killed. The wreck is a bad one and the track has not yet been cleared for the passenger train due here at 7 o'clock this morning.

Preparing for War.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—It is looked upon here as a somewhat significant fact of the rebellious state of affairs in the Hawaiian kingdom that steamers sailing for Honolulu within the past few days have carried large supplies of ammunition. Official records show that there have been shipped 900 rifles, 25,000 primers, 6000 bullets, two cases of shot and four cases of revolvers.

Shot in a House of Ill Fame.

SANTA BARBARA, June 21.—Last evening about 8 o'clock E. A. James, was shot at the house of a woman named Zoe Belmont. There seems to have been a quarrel at the supper table when the shooting took place. Three men and three women have been arrested and are awaiting examination.

Outwitting Her Pursuers.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Dispatches from Los Angeles two days ago, described the supposed flight of Mrs. Wilson and child from Santa Barbara. They were traced to San Diego, where she took passage on the steamer for San Francisco. Her pursuers came here only to learn that she had disembarked at San Pedro.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Matters of Interest to the School Department.

The Board of Education met last evening, the President, Dr. Kurtz, in the chair, and Mrs. Averill, Mr. C. N. Earl, Mr. F. S. Graham and Superintendent W. M. Friesner present.

A communication was received from Chief Janitor Henry containing an inventory of the property under his control and reporting as to repairs needed. Referred to the Committee on Janitors and Supplies.

Mrs. Averill stated that she had written to the secretaries of the different street railroad companies and had received replies from Col. Howland and from the Main Street and Agricultural Park Company. Mrs. Averill had called on Col. Howland and he had said that when the road had been completed he would issue passes to the teachers and give school children half fares if they bought fifty at a time. On motion the secretary was instructed to thank Mr. Howland for his kindness.

The secretary of the Main and Agricultural Park Company had replied that he would place the matter before the directors at the next meeting.

Numerous applications for positions as teachers were received and referred to the Teachers Committee. It was reported that all of the teachers now in the department except six or seven had reapplied for positions.

The committee on the commencement exercises reported that the Opera House had been engaged for to-night. It was decided to take no action in reference to reserving seats for the exercises.

Mrs. Averill reported that the Heine quartette had been engaged. The report was adopted.

A committee from the High School having requested that seats be reserved, it was decided that it was not for the best interests to grant the petition.

Gen. Brierly said that it was possible to correct the report of the Census Marshal by taking the books of the teachers and entering the names of those not already on the census, in the Marshal's report.

On motion the Superintendent was empowered to employ aid in comparing the school registers with the Census Marshal's report.

The Board then adjourned.

WIDENING FIRST STREET.

A Few More Days Before Final Action.

The First street property-owners met last night in Justice Austin's court-room, Dr. Widney in the chair, to listen to the report of the committee appointed at the last meeting to push matters toward a conclusion as regards the widening of First street. Mayor Workman reported that he had caused a survey to be made of First street to Vine street of ten feet on each side of the street. All the property-owners on the street up to Alameda street had either signed or agreed to sign the agreement to widen. He thought that the widening could be done without opposition.

Mr. A. Valla reported that he had seen a number of the residents and none had refused to agree to the widening.

Dr. Widney urged the importance of settling the matter as soon as possible, but it would take from two to three days of active work to finish the business of canvassing. He was waiting to commence the erection of a three-story brick building on First street and others were also waiting for the widening on the same account.

Mr. O. O. Tantrum reported that all the property owners were willing to widen from Vine street to the river as soon as the matter was settled between Vine and Los Angeles, and it would require two or three days' more work to finish that.

The meeting then adjourned until Saturday evening to hear the final report and make final arrangements.

Oxymel Club.

This club enjoyed a pleasant evening at the residence of L. J. Lockhart, 27 Buena Vista street, on Monday last. "Man" being the subject under consideration, much interest was displayed as to what would be presented by the lady members, who had exclusive charge of the papers and essays which were given. In view of this partiality, the gentlemen were treated much more considerately than was expected. Evidently the girls knew what was for their interest. There were numerous visitors at the meeting, and several of them kindly favored the club with musical selections, which were fully appreciated.

PACIFIC COAST.

Continuation of the Del Monte Fire Case.

WINE-GROWERS' CONVENTION.

Another Competitor Appears for the Pacific Coast Steamboat Service.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

SALINAS, June 21.—In the Simmons trial to-day Rudolph Ulrich, a landscape gardener at the burned Hotel Del Monte, testified that there was very little water on the night of the fire. He had met Simmons twice during the fire, and both times he was engaged in assisting people out and helping with the hose. Michael Dodge, the master plumber, testified that the main gate valve, which should be opened, he found closed. On cross-examination he admitted that he thought some one had tampered with the valve. J. A. Skinner, superintendent of the water works, testified that the reservoir for 16,000,000 gallons of water to supply the Del Monte was full on the night of the fire and the system was apparently in perfect working order. The witness saw defendant assisting occasionally. Patrick Murphy, an employé at the gas house, was the next witness, but nothing of importance was adduced from his testimony. E. J. Wicks, a guest, testified that during the progress of the fire he saw Simmons talking with another man, and during their conversation there was plenty of time to save property.

L. D. Norton, civil engineer to Mr. Brown, testified to the elevation of the Monterey reservoir and what pressure of water there should have been.

Hattie E. Allen, formerly a seamstress at the Del Monte, was the next witness. She testified that Mrs. Simmons, with her luggage, left the hotel on March 31st.

James A. Clough, complaining witness, was next placed on the stand, and he narrated how he was awakened by the fire and his subsequent actions. This witness testified that on the night of the fire he was wet through from working with the hose, but that Simmons was perfectly dry. He then gave a conversation that he had had with Simmons concerning the origin of the fire during which Simmons stated that on the night of the fire he had occasion to go underneath the house and saw matches and a candle which had been left on the table by a workman and that it was probable that the fire was caused by rats gnawing the matches.

A CONVENTION

Of Wine Makers and Grape Growers at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The semi-annual meeting of the grape growers and wine makers was called to order in the Grand Hotel this morning. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That any new movement looking towards any modification of the internal revenue laws, so as to permit the use of any spirits except grape brandy free of tax in fortifying wines, should be vigorously opposed by all friends of viticulture.

A resolution was also adopted calling for the appointment of a committee to confer with the Regents of the University of California, "to request that body to grant such assistance as may be necessary to enable the State Analyst to perform the duties of his office; and if such efforts fail, to devise ways and means to secure all wine analyses required under the Pure Wine law."

MORE COMPETITION.

Another Addition to the Coast Steamboat Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21. -- Besides the line of steamers that the Marquis Del Campo intends placing upon this side of the continent, it seems that the International Company of Mexico, will also have a line of steamers running up and down the Mexican coast. The Chronicle reported that it was shown a letter to-day from a prominent merchant in Mazatlan wherein it was stated that the company have a way out to that port. A steam vessel called the Mon Serrato, will ply between Mexican ports and San Diego. Other steamers are to be put on when needed, and it is also stated by a gentleman here who is interested in the Mexican trade, that the Marquis Del Campo will extend his line to Vancouver and a rumor has it that he has come to some arrangement with the Canadian Pacific for transcontinental shipments over their line.

AMERICAN SHIPPING.

Report of Committees of the Coast Department.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The Pacific Coast department of the American Shipping and Industrial League was organized here this afternoon. The meeting was called to order by J. F. Chapman. The committee on credentials reported about 150 delegates present. The committee also recommended that a vice-president be elected. Captain Eldridge was elected to this office. Ambrose Snow, Vice-President of the National League, was then introduced to the meeting and spoke at length on American shipping as it was and as it now is, and of the remedy which must be applied to place it where it was before the civil war. The policy of Great Britain in regard to her shipping was touched upon, especially the granting of subsidies to her steamship lines and a showing made that all the European governments would give subsidies to their vessels engaged in foreign trade. Captain W. L. Merry then spoke on the same subject, after which the league adjourned until to-morrow.

The Death Penalty.

PRESCOTT, A. T., June 21.—Frank Wilson, whose accomplice Johnson was convicted last week of the murder of the Clevenger family in the Buckstone mountains, this county, was to-day found guilty of murder in the first degree, with the death penalty attached. Sentence will be pronounced on both parties the latter part of this week.

The Poisoned Men

THE LIBEL CASE.

Conclusion of the Testimony and the Argument.

The court-room was as well filled yesterday when the case of the People against A. M. Thornton and B. A. Stephens was continued as on the previous day. The first witness was Judge R. M. Widney, who testified that he recollected that in the spring of 1870 a member of Bell's family was ill, Dr. Widney or Major Bell requested witness to go and sit up nights at the sickness of Mrs. Bell. She was suffering from insanity. Witness sat up one or two nights. Bell and witness had had conversations about Bell's wife. Bell said he was worn out with sitting up. Mrs. Bell's insanity partook of incoherence and such actions as no sane person makes. It was difficult to keep her quiet. It was also impossible, seemingly, to keep her warm. Discussed the necessity of removing her to some institution where she could be taken better care of than at home. She was evidently given the best of care at home. He took no part in assisting in her removal at all.

Biddy Mason testified that she knew both Horace Bell and wife. When Mrs. Bell was sick, in 1870, witness went to Bell's house to nurse her. Mrs. Bell seemed to witness to be in her right mind. She had a fever. She was very nervous. She never saw a straight-jacket put on Mrs. Bell while she nursed her. Witness never thought Mrs. Bell insane while she nursed her. She did not stay long with her after Mrs. Bell's accouchement.

Dr. Griffin testified that he had visited Major Bell's house during Mrs. Bell's confinement. She was insane. The complaint was due to and dependent upon child birth.

Captain A. M. Thornton testified that he had been attacked by the Porcupine, and believed he had a right to publish the pamphlet. A motion to strike this out was granted, and after a lengthy argument a recess was taken until half-past one o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon was occupied mainly in hearing testimony as to the character of Messrs. Stephens and Thornton, which Captain A. W. Barrett, John Burns, H. Jevne, J. H. Booke and E. P. Johnson swore was good.

In rebuttal Major Horace Bell testified that he had never ill-treated Mrs. Bell, and gave a lengthy description of her illness.

Cross-examined, he said: His wife never had a fainting spell that he knew of. It was about three weeks after the child was born before he noticed that his wife became afflicted with the abberation. She was a little flighty at first and afterwards she was seized with paroxysms which lasted from two to three hours at a time. Three weeks afterward he had taken her to Oakland.

The prosecution here rested its case. The argument continued until 5 o'clock, when a recess was taken until 7 o'clock.

The argument was concluded at 10 o'clock, and the jury retired, and at the time of going to press was still out.

Monrovia.

The first street car over the Myrtle Avenue Street Railway was run to-day. The road is now completed from the Santa Fe depot to the Grand View Hotel. The people of Monrovia are highly elated.

The First National Bank of Monrovia was organized to-day. The directors are John Wilde, John F. Brossart, E. L. Buck, G. W. Perkins and O. A. Moore. The officers are: John F. Brossart, president, and J. F. Sartori, cashier. The contract for a handsome brick block, to be occupied by the above bank, was let to-day to a Pasadena firm, and work will be commenced at once.

Picnic at Santa Monica.

All those who participated in the Sons of St. George picnic to Santa Monica yesterday were amply rewarded for their trouble. A most enjoyable day was spent and the weather was most propitious for the occasion. Swimming, foot, obstacle and other races served to enliven the day and a scratch team played a game of football, for the edification of those present. It is a great boon to Angelenos to have a resort like Santa Monica so close at hand for affairs of this kind, as on a sultry day an invigorating dip in the waters of the Pacific lends a charm to existence that no inland city can supply.

Exhibition of Curios.

Extensive arrangements are being made for an unusually fine exhibit of curios during the latter part of November or the first part of December. The entertainment will be under the auspices of the Simpson M. E. Church (Hope street), given by the Ladies' Social Circle of that church, assisted by its various departments. Some very valuable collections have been already secured. As plans are developed and details worked out, notices will be given reporting the progress of the work.

Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office by the Wadman Stove and Plumbing Company. The purposes of this corporation are to sell stoves, ranges and kitchen goods, and to do a general tinning and plumbing business. The number of directors to be five, and those elected for the first year are William B. Wadman, A. C. Fish, Frank McCoye, A. N. Elliott and James A. Macdonald; all of Los Angeles. The amount of capital stock is $10,000, in 200 shares of $50 each, of which $5000 has been subscribed.

The Verdugos' Case.

When the case of the Verdugos for the shooting of Juan Vega was called in Justice Austin's court yesterday morning, counsel applied for a postponement of the case. This was granted until June 23d and bail was set at $3000 for the appearance of each defendant.

The Japs Coming.

W. C. Bunner, advance agent for the Ouray Japanese troupe, is in town to arrange dates for a series of performances here. This company only arrived from Japan about three weeks ago and it is claimed numbers in its ranks some very skillful performers.

The St. Louis Encampment—Los Angeles's Intention.

At a meeting of the general committee in charge of the matter of representing Southern California at the National Encampment, G. A. R., to be held in St. Louis, commencing September 28th, next, a resolution was adopted authorizing the chairman and secretary to prepare and publish a statement of the objects to be attained and the use to be made of funds raised, etc.

When the National Encampment of the Grand Army in San Francisco, last August, selected St. Louis as the next place of meeting, the selection was criticized on the ground that the people of St. Louis would take little interest in the matter, and their reception would be in marked contrast with that of San Francisco, where the citizens raised some $70,000 by subscription for entertainment. But now we have word from St. Louis that nearly $100,000 was raised in little over a day, and every indication points to the grandest assemblage at St. Louis next September that has been seen since the close of the war. It is safe to predict that no gathering of people has ever occurred since the foundation of this Government, where every class of people, representing every possible interest, business calling and avocation, has been so fully represented as it will be then.

There is not a city or county, or hardly a village or hamlet in the broad expanse of this Union, north, south, east or west, that will not be represented there. Many comrades from Southern California will attend the gathering, and others also, as the reduced rate of fare is open to all. This committee believes that the great number of representatives of Southern California who will go and meet so many thousands of their friends and comrades from every section, will afford an opportunity to present and promote the interests of Southern California to an extent far exceeding any previous like occasion.

We have already taken steps to secure the most commodious and eligibly situated hall in St. Louis as "Southern California Headquarters," in which to make an exhibit of our products, and where we will distribute printed matter showing the attractions of Southern California. It should be distinctly understood that the funds to be raised in this manner are not to be used to defray any of the expenses of delegates to the National Encampment, or of any member of the Grand Army; but the whole amount raised shall be applied to representing and promoting the interests of Southern California.

We cordially invite all citizens, as well as all comrades, to join us in this undertaking, and as many as can to meet with us, advise and assist. The next meeting of the committee will be on Saturday, July 2d, at 2 P. M., in Masonic Hall, 59½ South Spring street. At that meeting it is deemed advisable to select a Committee on Exhibits, whose duty it will be to gather, prepare and forward products and articles for exhibition. As so much must depend on this committee, we hope to see a full attendance of those interested. The public press are requested to make known our object and purpose, so far as they can consistently.

Our first effort towords raising funds will be the two grand heroic and patriotic entertainments to be given at Hazard's Pavilion, on the evening of June 29th and 30th.

The following constitutes the finance committee: A. H. Denker, Chairman, I. W. Hellman, J. B. Lankershim, J. S. Slauson, R. M. Widney, J. Kurtz, William Lacy, D. Freeman, William Ferguson, H. L. Macneil, M. L. Wicks, E. Germain, P. Ballade, F. C. Howes, W. H. Workman, A. M. Thornton, L. S. Butler, E. P. Johnson, E. M. Hamilton, W. J. Brown, Walter S. Moore, B. Cohen, A. E. Pomeroy, A. St. Jacobs Oil cures pain permanently. All say so. Price 50 cents.

Though Shaken Like a Leaf

By the most trivial causes, weak nerves are easily susceptible of invigoration, a term which also imports, in this instance, quietude. The nervous have but to use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters systematically to overcome that super-sensitiveness of the human sensorium, which is subversive of all bodily comport and mental tranquility, and which resects most hurtfully upon the system. The difficulty underlying this, as well as many other ailments, is imperfect assimilation, no less than incomplete digestion of the food. In the discharge of both the digestive and assimilative functions, the Bitters are the most potent, the most reliable auxiliary. As the body regains vigor and regularity by its aid, the brain and nervous system are also benefitted. Persons subject to the influence of malaria, dyspeptic and rheumatic invalids, and persons whose kidneys are inactive, should also use the Bitters.

Cheap, Choice, Near-by Acre Property.

The odd blocks in the Providencia Ranch, embracing 40 acres each, located west of and near the town of Burbank, will be placed on the market at one hundred dollars per acre on Monday morning, July 6th. The quality and fertility of the soil and the near-by location makes this the cheapest acre property in Los Angeles.

All Property Owners

on Olive, Orange Grove and Angelena avenues, in the town of Burbank, are requested to call at the office of the company, No. 12 South Spring street, at once, on matters of importance to themselves.

Constipation Has Many Victims,

And the endeavor to find relief with the cathartic, the injection, the aperient and laxative are distressing. These are resorted to time and again, until the sufferer is almost in despair, as he gains only a brief respite.

By taking Simmons Liver Regulator, the bowels will be gently moved as naturally as if no medicine had been taken. Regularity in taking the medicine will soon effect a permanent relief.

Now Has Faith.

I had been troubled all winter with cold and pain in the chest and got no relief from remedies recommended by druggists and physicians. At the same time I was advertising Dr. Bosanko's cough and lung syrup. I had little faith, but thought to try it as a last resort, now I believe even more than they tell me of its curative qualities.—From the News, Elizabethtown, Ky. Sample bottle 5 cents at C. Special Announcement.

The first advance in the price of Ivanhoe lots was made June 1st as per advertisement for several months. For various good reasons, some of the lots are left at the original prices for another month. But most of them have been advanced 20 to 50 per cent. Even at advanced prices it is the best property offered for the money anywhere around Los Angeles; and buyers should choose their lots before the next advance, which will be made in July. The sale of lots in May was larger than in any previous month, and the end of June will find most of the lots sold. All who see Ivanhoe agree that it is the best property for the least money that can be found. The water system and the dummy road will both be ready by July, and many houses will be built in the next two months. If you want a first-class large lot for a small amount of money, come at once. FOURTH OF JULY.

The First Brigade, N. G. C., Will Turn Out.

The following order has been issued by Gen. John R. Mathews:

HEADQUARTERS FIRST BRIGADE, N. G. C.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 20, 1887.

General Orders No. 1.

In compliance with law, the First brigade, N. G. C., will parade Monday, July 4, 1887, in commemoration of the 111th anniversary of American independence.

Company commanders are directed to forward to brigade headquarters on or before July 10th parade reports of their representative commands.

The annual inspection and muster of this brigade, as provided for in section 1970 of the Political Code will be held by companies on July 4, 1887.

The annual inspection and muster of Companies "A" and "C" of Los Angeles will be held under the supervision of Major J. Downey Harvey, Brigade Inspector, and that of Company "B" (San Diego City Guards) under the supervision of Major Arnold Wintscher, of the Brigade Staff, who is hereby detailed for that duty.

The muster rolls required must be forwarded to these Headquarters on or before the 20th day of July.

The attention of the Inspecting Officers is especially called to General Orders No. 17, Part 2, issued from General Headquarters, and dated July 14, 1887, which are as follows:

2. "The condition of the uniforms, the number of new uniforms and blouses required, the character and pattern of helmets, cartridge boxes and belts will be especially reported by the inspecting officers."

7. A separate report complying with the above paragraph will be forwarded to these headquarters by the inspecting officers as soon as practicable,

By order of Brigadier-General Mathews.

L. S. BUTLER,
Major Assistant Adjutant General.

"Held by the Enemy."

Held by the Enemy, Wm. Gillette's American play, which will be presented at the Grand Opera House next week, has just concluded the most successful engagement ever known at the Baldwin Theater, San Francisco. Manager Wyatt received a telegram from there last evening that all the scenery, properties and mechanical effects would be shipped on to-day's train from that city, Held by the Enemy received some very excellent criticisms from the San Francisco press. The following is from the Call of June 6th:

It is a pleasure to state that the immediate success of Held by the Enemy on Monday night was only a slight preliminary to a career of local prosperity. The play suits the public and has come to stay. Every great literary effort is not a play, and we are glad of it. And every great play is not a literary effort, and we are glad of that. Held by the Enemy is free from the sad effects of literary effort. Its people are real people. It is racy of the soil, full of life and color, and shows many artistic touches. Again we congratulate Mr. Gillette on his cleverness.

A "Susan" played as Miss Dillon plays it in Held by the Enemy, would make any play go. When that play, in addition, is clean, crisp, bright and breezy, with a pair of good-looking sentimental young lovers and a live newspaper man, it goes with a snap that is absolutely sparkling. Held by the Enemy deserves every good word that has been said of it. The cast is excellent and the scenery thoroughly appropriate. It is hard to see where either could be improved.

Pullman Passengers.

The following passengers left yesterday on the 1:30 train: H. Perry, Mr. Taber, M. McFarland, Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Gardner, Mr. Bolling, W. W. Jenkins, Mrs. O. S. Johnson, W. L. Card, A. B. Clark, Miss Flora Tentan.

The following left on the 7:30 train: H. Percy, Mr. Nippert, Mrs. Simpson, O. Painter, C. J. Wilder, Mrs. Locke.

Provide for the Strangers.

This is usually the dull season of the year when business relaxes and the people leave for the country, the mountains or the seaside. To the astonishment of everybody, business is just as brisk now as at the usual flush season, and there appears to be no diminution in the number of our people. Visitors are here in large crowds, and all our hotels are choked full. The fact is Los Angeles has taken such a start that the stream of new comers pays no attention to the seasons. It keeps pouring straight along in a solid column. If it taxes our hotels to furnish accommodations for those wanting them now, what shall we do with the tremendous rush we shall have next fall and winter? If only a small part of the visitors it is confidently assumed will seek Los Angeles next fall, should come, how shall we provide for them? A great number of minor hotels and large boarding houses have been started here in the last six months, yet these seem to afford no perceptible relief. Nothing but one or more hotels on a very extensive scale will meet the emergency. These we should have, and our citizens should lose no time in trying to meet the great want that will be upon us next winter. There ought to be no difficulty in forming one or more joint-stock companies for this purpose. Hotels will pay here straight along for an indefinite number of years. Money invested in them will yield directly a very large interest, and indirectly the whole city will be immensely benefited. Every person owning property here will realize substantial advantages from them. On the other hand, if a flood of strangers pours in upon us, and they are forced to go elsewhere because of the lack of accommodations here, a serious injury will be inflicted upon our city. It is no light matter for the tide of strangers to be turned from its original direction. If it cannot find shelter here, it will probably go north, where there is no lack of hotel room, and in that way we would play directly into the hands of our good friends in the northern part of the State, who would want nothing better, and would know how to take advantage of the opportunity we had thrown in their way. Let us not be found in the position of the foolish virgins when the Eastern hosts come. Let us at once make preparations to receive them and furnish them with comfortable quarters. A syndicate of our rich men could soon place us in position to provide all the hotel room that would be necessary. There are a number of fine locations that could be secured for buildings that would at once be ornaments to our city and an attraction to people in easy circumstances to come here to spend a great part of their time in the enjoyment of our matchless climate and magnificent scenic surroundings. It has been street talk for several days that steps were being taken to build a large hotel on the Briswalter orange tract on South Main street. That would be a delightful location for a great caravansary, and we hope that the enterprising gentlemen who have the management of the Briswalter estate will see their way clear to enter upon an improvement of this inviting character. But whatever may be done in this way by private parties, a joint-stock company, organized on a large scale, could give us what Los Angeles sorely needs now, and what she will always need, a hotel that would accommodate the immense crowd of visitors that will constantly flock here from all parts of the Union. No safer investment could be made, and as it would be in a measure an enterprise beneficial to all, we believe that the proper way to start it would be through the organization of a joint-stock company to which all could subscribe. We could name half a dozen men in this city who, if they would enter earnestly into a scheme of this character, would place it on the high road to successful accomplishment in a very few days.

RHODE ISLAND is a steady Republican State, simply because two-thirds of the people in that State are disfranchished through the anti-republican property qualification which its constitution imposes. The actual vote is 21,000. The vote that would be cast if the franchise were not restricted by a property qualification would be 60,000. It is all well enough to disfranchise votes when the Republican party receives the benefit. The suspicion that such is the case in favor of the Democratic party in some of the Southern States is sufficient to make the Shermans and Chandlers howl with rage.

Encourage Home Manufactures.

In order to stimulate manufacturing industries here, those who have the nerve to start new home manufactories ought to be encouraged. The spirit of enterprise will soon depart from any place where it receives a cold welcome. Many people reason very shallowly about their duty in this respect. They will say to themselves that their custom does not amount to much, and send abroad for articles they might secure here just as well, and perhaps just as cheaply. Take, for instance, the foundry business. In the great industrial revival which has made Los Angeles the wonder of the century, no kind of manufactory has made greater strides than this. Yet we are assured, that gratifying as has been the progress of this particular home industry, it might be made to flourish to a much greater extent if all our people would patronize it exclusively for the manufactures it could as well supply as Eastern foundries. We are assured that some of our machine shops turn out as good a plow as any in use, and at prices tha cannot be materially competed with by Eastern shops. Yet nine-tenths of our farmers are so short-sighted as to give their custom to the plow made on the other side of the Rockies. We cite this merely as an instance of the short-sighted policy of a large number of our people. The same criticism applies to other home industries. Some of these are struggling against great odds and ought to be patronized by our people, even if they had to make a slight sacrifice to do so. Where we have one hundred men now employed in home manufactures, we would have five hundred if a proper spirit of local patriotism animated all our people on this subject. We are all of one mind as to the beneficial policy of establishing home manufactories here. No one doubts that the successful operation of a nail factory in Los Angeles would be of great general advantage to the locality as well as a paying enterprise to those who invest in it. Yet men who see clearly the need of increasing our manufacturing industries, are not always careful, when they want an article that is made here, to give decided preference to it. Some people have been in the habit of using a certain foreign production, and cannot bring themselves to believe that the same thing produced at home is as good. Thus it is with that large class of people who are wedded to certain brands of wines. They will pay twice the price for a foreign brand that they would for a home wine, and yet, in nine cases out of ten, they are buying labels, instead of the wine they think they are getting. We find in a recent number of the Examiner an interview with Mr. W. T. Garrett, a well known San Francisco manufacturer, in which he handles this subject very strikingly. He says.

"Some people fancy that the best is only obtainable abroad, and having plenty of money, they send abroad for everything they use, and even break up their homes to send their children to Europe for an education, and the poor things often return more ignorant of affairs than when they went away. Only a few days ago a gentleman came to me inquiring if I had a place in which I could put his son where the lad might learn a trade. 'My friend,' said I, 'how often have I asked you to give me your trade, instead of sending East for what you require in my line?' His reply was, 'O, my requirements are very limited, and in a whole year would not amount to any perceptible increase in your income.' 'That is not the point,' I responded. 'Your patronage would keep one of my men employed for thirty days. Eleven more like you would keep him at work all the year round, but since you will not see it in that light, why, send your boy East to learn a trade, and I'll take in a boy whose father feels more like encouraging home industries.' Of course my friend was a little hurt, but in his heart he must acknowledge the force and justice of my argument. The fact is, that if all the people had done what seems to me to be their obvious duty in this matter, during the past ten years, our manufactures would to-day be three or four times their present size. Think, for a moment, what that means. Here I employ 250 men when I should be able to give steady work to 700 or 1000 men. Take every manufacturing establishment in the city and increase it in this proportion and you will then see how many more comfortable homes there would be; how property would increase in value, and how every trade and calling would flourish through sympathy."

THE members of the Grand Army located in Southern California intend to make their visit to St. Louis to attend the National Encampment next September serve the double purpose of fulfilling their duty as Grand Army men and at the same time advertising the beauties, attractions, resources and advantages of this section to the vast number of people who will assemble there from all parts of the Union. This is an excellent idea, and the Los Angeles members of the Grand Army have taken the initiative in the movement by offering to make their headquarters in St. Louis the center of a display of our products that will attract universal attention. A committee of citizens has been appointed to co-operate with the veterans in raising funds to meet the expenses of this exhibition, and a grand patriotic entertainment will be given at Hazard's Pavilion on the evenings of the 29th and 30th of this month for that purpose. That these entertainments will be liberally patronized we cannot doubt. No effort should be spared to render successful an effort so commendable and so well calculated to advance the interests of our section.

EVERY day brings forth some new exemplification of the nerve and enterprise of our people. The latest surprise is the incorporation of a company to build a railroad that will skirt the foothills of the Cahuenga range, passing through a number of fine ranches and terminating at a point on Santa Monica Bay. This road will give an impetus to settlement on a vast extent of as fine lands as this county possesses.

THE business of the country has never been more generally prosperous than since the accession of Cleveland to the Presidency. Yet men of the John Sherman stripe prophesied that hard times and business stagnation would follow if the national government were placed in the hands of the Democratic party.

Destruction of Devices.

A special from Atlanta, Ga., says: Yesterday morning a remarkable sight was witnessed at the intersection of three of the principal streets of Atlanta. Six wagon-loads of gambling tools were burned to ashes. An immense crowd witnessed the burning. Ever since Atlanta went dry an extraordinary effort has been made by the police authorities to suppress gambling in every form. During the past eighteen months the police raided many gambling establishments and captured a large quantity of the paraphernalia usually found in gambling establishments. All these, making over six large wagonloads were hauled to the most public corner in the city and dumped into two large piles. The tables and fortune wheels and faro boards were broken and split into small pieces. Some of the furniture was new and costly. The aggregate value of the two piles of fuel was not less than $10,000. After pouring several gallons of kerosene oil upon the piles, Chief of Police Connally applied a match, and in a few minutes the flames were shooting upward. The mass of matter was rapidly consumed. Several old gamblers, whose property some of the gaming outfit was, stood and watched the destruction of the costly and beautiful devices. It was to them a sad sight.

A Red-Headed Superstition.

"Here's a red-headed girl; and there's a white horse," remarked Mr. John Mathews, the well-known sporting man, who was walking down Broadway with a reporter.

"What do you mean?" he was asked.

"Didn't you ever hear that before? Every time you meet a red-headed girl you will see a white horse."

Half a block further another red-headed girl was met.

"Where's your white horse now?" asked the reporter.

"There's one turning the next corner," he replied, and sure enough, around the corner came the white horse, drawing a dray.

"They never fail, I tell you. I have been saying, 'here's a red-headed girl and there's a white horse' for fifteen years. I've never got left yet."

After parting, the reporter met one more red-headed girl, and, looking for the white horse, was not surprised to see a car pass drawn by two of them.—N. Y. Evening Sun.

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great

Regenerative Medicine

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an

Absolute Cure

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world.

Cure for Piles.

PILES are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua O. Sold by E. F. Heinzeman.

INSECTICIDE.

We beg to call your attention to an article we are manufacturing for the purpose of eradicating and destroying the Scale Bug, Harvest Flies, Tree Hoppers, Plant Lice, Etc.

It has been fully tested by the Agricultural Department of the State University, and pronounced a success, the endorsement of which we append. It is put up in convenient forms for use. The chemicals employed in same will not hurt the most tender bush, as has been fully demonstrated. It is put up in liquid form ready for use in barrels and 5-gallon cans, and in paste form in 2 and 5-lb. cans and barrels, which must be diluted before using; therefore, we recommend the liquid form as being the best for use.

[Copy of letter received from the University of California, College of Agriculture, Berkeley, dated Dec. 4th, 1886.]

J. N. Knowles, Esq., Manager Arctic Oil Works, San Francisco:

Dear Sir—We have lately tested the Insecticide preparation of Whale Oil Soap sent by you to us, and have found it to be very effectual against the Scale infesting Orange and Bay Trees; also against the Thrips. From our previous experience with a similar composition, I think it will be found fully effectual against any small Insect Pests not specially protected like some of the armored Scales, and against which any Wash short of strong lye cannot be used. Respectfully,
E. W. HILGARD,
Professor State University.

We ask you to give this preparation a thorough test, feeling confident that it will do all we claim for it. It will cost but a small amount to save your fruit trees and flower plants from the deadly insect. Give it a trial and be convinced. Yours truly,

HYDE PARK!

LOOK WHERE YOU WILL IN THE VICINITY OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES IN search either of lots or acre property for charming homes, and the best judgments will be convinced at a glance as to the difficulty of finding a location for a town so beautiful, such pure and bracing air, and smooth, rich lands as characterizes Hyde Park. This splendid townsite is located on the line of the California Central, of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe system, which is to connect Los Angeles with the new harbor at La Ballona, and is distant 7½ miles from the center of the city; a midway town between the city and the harbor. Trains are to be running through the tract by July next, when great business activity all along the line will be the order of the day. Liberal sized lots, 60x189 feet, fronting on 60-foot avenues, are offered and being taken rapidly at $125 each; $40 cash; balance $10 per month without interest. This price includes water piped to each lot and the streets graded. Such terms give the present purchasers a good opportunity to make money in the rising values that must follow the effects of the harbor and railroad developments. Particularly desirable are the 5 and 10 acre villa lots surrounding the town. Conveyances leave the office at 1:30 P. M. to show parties the beautiful property.

DAILY HERALD.

JUBILEE BALL.

The Pavilion a Scene of Dazzling Splendor.

PROMINENT PERSONS PRESENT

England and America Join Hand-in-Hand in Celebrating a Good Queen's Reign.

Last night witnessed a scene of splendor in Hazard's Pavilion when the patriotic subjects of Queen Victoria assembled to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of her reign by a grand ball and banquet. No efforts had been lacking on the part of the working committee to make the affair a success, and they must have felt a thrill of pride at the result of their efforts when they gazed upon the brilliant assemblage present. It was a dream of poetic fancy. Fair women and stalwart men, flashing diamonds and bright eyes met the gaze of the observer in every direction, and "take it for its all in all, we shall not soon look upon its like again." America had joined hand in hand with her English cousin in paying respect to the monarch of a mighty nation, and the link of affinity and the pre-existing ties of affection were indissolubly strengthened. The dark-eyed descendants of our Spanish aristocracy, the ruddy complexioned sons of Albion, and the representatives of our own mighty race commingled together in a harmonious medley that betokened the bonds of friendship and of love. Rippling laughter and the sounds of pleasant voices came stealing o'er the perfume laden atmosphere, and the strains of delicious music lent an enchantment to the scene that made the blood move quicker in one's veins and fired the imagination as the senses yielded to the subtleties of the surroundings. And when the melody of one of Strauss' fine waltzes resounded, and the vast throng whirled around in the mazes of their terpsichorean amusement, it was a spectacle that would have called forth the admiration of the most blasé habitue of fashionable gatherings.

THE DECORATIONS.

The surroundings were in harmony with the occasion. From the galleries and walls were suspended quantities of waving bunting, and the Union Jack and the stars and stripes floated proudly side by side. The vast floor had been carefully waxed and being cleared of all encumbrances, made a superb field for the prowess of those engaged in the saltatory art. Ice cream parlors tempted the hot and weary with their lure of the cooling refreshment to be obtained within. For those of the sterner sex who sought the relaxation of "the lone man's companion" an excellent smoking room was to be found near the main entrance, and numbers availed themselves of this privilege during the course of the night. Hat and cloak rooms were of course provided, and so ably managed that scarcely a hitch occurred in compiying with the wants of the vast multitude that patronized this department. One of the chief objects of interest was the banqueting hall, and the roomy stage had been improvised for this purpose. It was, of course, only possible to seat a small fraction of those present at the one time, but the utmost good humor prevailed, and there was no unnecessary crowding nor unseemly rush when the hour of the banquet began. An excellent menu had been provided by Messrs. Rose and Bilderrain, of the St. Elmo hotel, and it is safe to say that the most critical epicure found but small grounds for complaint. The popping of corks reminded one of a miniature artillery exercise and Mumm's extra dry and Pommery sec. sparkled in the shining glasses and quenched the thirst of those who quaffed their cooling draughts.

A march was announced for 9 o'clock, but was not attempted, as most of the visitors did not arrive until after that time. By 12 o'clock fully 800 persons were present and at that hour the curtain which had hitherto concealed the stage ascended and disclosed the American and English flags crossed in the background. This was the signal for the orchestra to strike up "God Save the Queen" and the vast audience rose while the English national anthem was being sung by the choir. It was followed by the "Star Spangled Banner," which was rendered excellently and then it was announced that the banquet was ready.

Dancing was afterwards resumed, and so the night went on and the "wee sma' hours" passed by until the roseate tints of the coming day came peeping in through window and door, warning the pleasure-takers that their revelry must come to an end. Eyes which had glittered in the early part of the night with the fire of youth and enthusiasm began to grow clouded, and a general longing for the "slumbers that soothe" became apparent. The vast throng began to disperse, and when old Sol sent his glittering shafts into the hall, the golden rays found naught but scattered rose-leaves and fading echoes to tell the tale of the scene of boundless gaiety that had been therein.

THE COSTUMES.

Caledonia, "stern and wild," had among her representatives present, one attired in all the glory of his native heath, and the picturesque kilts and flowing plaids of his costume rendered a pleasing contrast to the suits of melancholy black in which the rest of the sterner sex were arrayed. The ladies dresses were of course charming, and although it would be a herculean task to attempt to describe the many tasteful costumes that attracted the attention, a feeble attempt to mention the most prominent ones is given below:

Mrs. Chas. A. Sumner in heliotrope silk, lace and mosaics, and being a member of the Primrose League, had everything adorned with primrose color.

Mrs. Judge Gardner in a charming costume of red satin and black lace.

Mrs. Gov. Stoneman in salmon-colored satin, with black lace trimmings and diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Dr. Worthington in black and silver lace dress.

Mrs. Chas. Vernon Housman in gros grain ecru silk with pearl passamenterie trimmings and pearl and diamond ornament

Mrs. G. A. Dobinson in heliotrope satin and black velvet.

Mrs. Mamie-Perry Davis in black Spanish lace dress.

Miss E. Corson was attired in a jubilee dress, an exact reproduction of the costumes worn at the time of Queen Victoria's accession to the throne.

Mrs. Jackson in black lace dress with diamond pendants and necklace.

Miss Jackson in cardinal satin dress with lace trimmings.

Mrs. Wormersley in white pique silk and diamond ornaments.

Miss Routh in cream-colored satin, with real Valenciennes lace and diamond and pearl ornaments.

Mrs. H. T. Lee in pink satin and Valenciennes lace, with diamond ornaments and wearing an antique comb in her hair.

Miss L. A. Richardson in a charming white crepe dress with point lace trimmings.

Mrs. Geo Kemp, Jr., in white corded silk, brocaded in gold.

Mrs. T. B. Henry in pale blue satin and Swiss embroidery overdress. Ornaments, rubies and diamonds.

Miss Mona Laux in white satin and lace and pearl ornaments.

Mrs. Chapman in cream brocaded satin.

Mrs. Capt. Tomkinson in canary-colored silk with black lace trimming.

Mrs. Hardwicke Lewis in black velvet and Houinton lace.

Miss Rose Dorsey in salmon-colored satin with lace trimmings and pearl ornaments.

PERSONS PRESENT.

To give a list of all who were present would mean an attack on the columns of the HERALD that would effectually exclude all other news, so those whose names are not mentioned must be contented with the sweeping statement that the whole bon ton of Los Angeles society had its representatives within the building. Those especially noticed were Gen. and Mrs. Stoneman, Vice-Consul Mortimer, C. A. Sumner and wife, Doña Juanna Murietta, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. C. V Housman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bridges, Capt. Tomkinson, wife and daughter, Dr. F. Z. Gresham and wife, H C. Cean and wife, Maj. Draper, wife and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Worthington, H. McLellan, Judge Gardner and wife, W. L. CO-OPERATIVE COLONY.

Clouds of War Begin to Arise in the Organization.

Some time ago an organization was started here to purchase a large tract of land and establish a co-operative colony. The idea was for the directors to purchase a tract of land and sell it out in small holdings. It was an alluring scheme and worked like a charm. Money flowed into the treasury and a portion of the Cerritos ranch was purchased. Some weeks ago George Rice and other directors withdrew and gave a note of warning, but the money continued to come in. Yesterday R. W. Walton, one of the stockholders of the colony, called at its palatial offices and asked a few questions regarding the affairs of the corporation. This Wm. Ross took umbrage at and, it is alleged, assaulted Walton viciously and with a blow broke one of his ribs. Walton swore out a warrant and Ross was arrested and arraigned before Justice Austin.

Alvin D. Brock, one of the stockholders in the concern, has issued a letter making serious charges against the directors. He also charges that there have been $90,000 paid into the hands of the treasurer and that said treasurer has given no bond to secure the stockholders. It is said that there will be a complete expose of the concern and if everything is straight the people will know it, while on the other hand if there is anything crooked it will come to the surface.

A NEW RAILROAD.

The Los Angeles County Railroad Company Incorporated.

Yesterday evening late the articles of incorporation of the Los Angeles County Railroad Company were filed with the County Clerk. The object is to build and maintain a standard gauge steam railroad from a point in the city of Los Angeles to a point on the bay of Santa Monica. The directors are M. L. Wicks, R. C. Shaw, O. C. Rounds, I. S. Miller and E. C. Burlingame. The capital stock is $300,000, of which $29,000 has been subscribed.

It is the intention of the company to skirt the foothill country and pass through the lands of Hammel & Denker. It will open up and put upon the market a vast extent of country, and will very materially increase the wealth of Los Angeles county. Work will be commenced on the new road very shortly, and the people at the head of the affair mean business.

Ashes Consigned to the Waves.

Yesterday a gentleman went to San Pedro and hired a boatman named Burton to row him out to sea. When the couple had got out past Deadman's Island the passenger took a small bundle, consigned it to the waves, and turning to the astonished boatman said, "Now you can row back." The boatman was much excited and mystified, but was pacified when told that he had for a passenger the man whose wife was cremated the other night, and who wanted to consign her ashes to the waves.

Considerable Profit.

A couple of years ago the Childs' tract was sold on a novel plan, the lots being drawn for, the person whose name coming first out of the box being awarded the first choice. Lots were sold at $600 each, on easy time, and even that was considered a high price. A. Ockerblum the druggist had the first choice and selected a lot on the corner of Twelfth and Main streets yesterday. Yesterday Mr. Ockerblum sold his lot for $10,600, making a clear profit of $10,000.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

A Review of the Day's Transactions.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The renewal of the panicky feeling of the Chicago grain market was supplemented to-day by the closing of the doors of the Fidelity Bank in Cincinnati, Ohio. With these influences in their favor and the market lacking stimulus the bearish boom traders hammered prices all round the room throughout almost the entire day. Pacific Mail was a special object of attack early in the morning and did not recover the loss. Trading in the last hour was the heaviest during the day and all active stocks shared in the improvement, most of them being carried to the highest figures of the day. Specialties were unusually quiet and featureless. The opening was weak at a decline from yesterday's final figures, extending to ½ per cent, and under the lead of the Pacific Mail, which dropped 1¾ in the first fifteen minutes, further fractional declines were made in the general list. After the first half hour the market relapsed into extreme dullness, although the heavy tone continued until noon After that time there was a change for the better, although no feature was developed until the last hour, when a decided strength was shown by the entire list and Reading advanced 1¼ per cent. The transactions for the last hour exceeded the business of the remainder of the day in that stock. The result of the day's business is that prices are irregularly changed, although the differences are for fractional amounts only, except Reading, which is up 1¼. The early gain was due in a great measure to the manipulation of the failure of the Cincinnati bank and the break here in wheat and coffee, coupled with an indifferent demand for spots. All appeared to carry more or less effected influences. The new crop was firm in the morning but afterward eased off somewhat under better weather reports.

DAILY HERALD.

WHO IS HE?

A Los Angeles Legislator Who Played Poker.

The Examiner of Sunday contains an article about a big game of poker that occurred at Sacramento during the last session of the legislation. According to the Examiner a Los Angeles statesman got badly left, in fact he dropped in the neighborhood of $5000. One man who read the article shook his head sadly and remarked, "well who would have thought that Brierly had saved that amount out of the collector's office." Another citizen said, "It must be Knox, I always suspected him after he made such efforts to have a Sunday law passed." A dispatch from Santa Ana says: "Affidavits are on file that Spurgeon never played a game of poker in his life and does not know a playing card from an invitation to a jubilee ball." Senator Rose was in San Francisco when the game was played, and as for Senator White, such a thing is not to be thought of. It is very evident that the Examiner is trying to lay the misdeeds of some of the wicked men of San Francisco on Los Angeles shoulders. Following is the Examiner account.

"One of the greatest games of draw-poker that I ever sat in," said a State Senator last evening at the Grand Hotel, "was played at Sacramento during the last meeting of the Legislature. It was one day about three weeks after the Legislature convened that a note was left on my desk by an Assemblyman from the southern portion of the State inviting me to take a hand in a 'small game' at the Golden Eagle that night. I tore the note up, and wrote another accepting the invitation, which I had a page take into the Assembly chambers.

"About 11 o'clock that night I tapped at the door of the room I was told to come to. It was opened, and I found three Senators and two Assemblymen inside. They were waiting for me, and only allowed me time to take a glass of wine and light a cigar, saying that they were losing valuable time.

"There was one man in the party who has been in the Senate for the past three sessions, and who has a big reputation as a poker-player among his most intimate friends, though outside of them it is not known that he understands one card from another. But he does, and, as I was bound to find out, is the sharpest and shrewdest player I ever met.

"Well, we took our places around the table and a new deck of cards was laid upon it. The gentleman from the extreme North got the deal and dealt them around. Nothing remarkable happened for several deals. In fact I don't think more than $25 changed hands in three-quarters of an hour playing. We were all holding off and playing a close game to feel each other.

"At last a Los Angeles man made a deal. The man I mentioned as being an old hand at the game let his cards lay on the table and raised the ante without looking at his hand. I kept out. A Colusa gentleman came in, but did not raise. Two passed out and the Los Angeles man came in.

"When it came to the draw the "Old Man," as he was called, picked up his hand, and, looking over his shoulder, I observed that he only had a pair of deuces in his hand. He held a jack with them and drew two cards as a blind. I looked over his shoulder when he had drawn and nearly gave vent to my surprise. The two cards he had drawn were deuces, and he now had four of them. He laid his hand upon the table and made a bet of $5, he being first. The Colusa man raised this $5 and the Los Angeles man, who was contemplating his hand with a serene smile, threw $25 upon the table, raising the pot $10. The "Old Man" was calm as could be. He brought out his purse and raised the last bet $100.

"The Colusa man thought for several minutes and then raised the pot $50, but with so sickly an air that he was considered out altogether. The Los Angeles man looked as confident as ever and put the last $200 he had on the table, raising the Colusa man $50. 'I'll see you $50 and go you $500 better,' said the 'Old Man,' and he hauled out a checkbook and wrote out a check 'payable to bearer.'

"The Colusa man was seized with paralysis, and the Los Angeles legislator's smile gave way to a troubled and suspicious look. He had a checkbook with him. He brought it out and penned off a check for $1000, payable to bearer.

"We were all excited; everyone of us more so than the 'Old Man,' who leisurely proceeded to scratch off another check.

"'I'll raise you $2000,' he said as quiet as ever.

"The Los Angeles lawmaker grew deathly pale. He grabbed a bottle of wine and hastily drank two glasses. Then he took up his cards in a very excited manner. 'I believe you're bluffing,' he said, 'so I'll call you,' and he put a check for $2000 upon the table.

"'I've got two pair,' said the 'Old Man.'

"'Then I'll take the pot, for I've got a full,'' fairly yelled the Los Angeles man.

"'But mine are two pair of deuces—four deuces,' remarked the member for three sessions as he raked in the pot.

"'Now,' he said, 'I must go to bed and get up for church in the morning.'"

The Professor.

Profesor Savariej's latest is an etching by that accomplished artist representing a mountain cañon. Grotesque looking figures perch in impossible attitudes in inaccessible places and there is a dash of wild imagery about it which betokens the wild realms of fancy into which the professor can soar. He takes great delight in his production and exhibited it yesterday to wondering bystanders with the air of an artist who takes a pride in his masterpiece. The professor has evidently been lately initiated into some secret society, as he wears a horseshoe suspended from the lapel of his coat, surmounted by the legend "good luck."

The Santa Fe Depot.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé depot grows apace with the many requirements that the business demands. An army of workmen is still engaged about the buildings, and when their labors are completed there is no doubt but that the result will be a welcome addition to our business centers. A restaurant has been opened, to which those who feel the pangs of hunger may flee with impunity. The main avenue is being well graded, and the adjoining vine-covered land is being cleared to permit of the erection of the many tenements which are sure to be needed.

A Shooting.

F. Frank Boyle, a section boss at El Monte, was arrested by Constable Borden Sunday on a charge of assault to kill. It seems that Boyle had discharged an Italian named Francisco Vedondi. The latter did not want to quit, and in the course of an altercation Boyle drew a revolver and fired several shots in the direction of the Italian. It is said that Vedondi had his pistol out when Boyle fired. Justice McGirk will look into the matter.

POLICE INVESTIGATION.

The Charges Against Fred Smith Not Sustained.

The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, a full Board present.

On motion A. C. Clarke, Secretary of the Commission, was given a week's leave of absence.

Mayor Workman called attention to the condition of First street, corner of Main, which was in a crowded condition. He thought that an officer should be stationed there all the time to keep teams moving and the street clear. The chief was instructed to place an officer at that place.

Mayor Workman then read thn following charges against Fred C. Smith, preferred by Chief Skinner:

On the 17th of this month I supended Officer Fred Smith for the following reasons:

First—Disclosing to the public the secret workings of this office.

Second—For endeavoring to establish that I was being recompensed by the gamblers of this city to allow them to proceed with their games without police interference, which is contrary to section 27 of our rules and regulations, and I respectfully ask that you confirm said suspension and that his dismissal from the force may ensue.

(Signed) J. K. SKINNER,
Chief of Police.

The question as to what rules the department had been working under was brought up, and by reference to the minutes it was ascertained that the Chief had been authorized on the 9th of February to procure rules for the guidance of the officers, and the rules in use in the San Francisco Department had been sent for. After reading the rules referred to in the charges, Fred Smith did not object to it, but Mayor Workman stated that the rules had never been adopted by the Commission. It was decided to scratch out the words referring to the rules.

Fred Smith being sworn, said that no evidence had been put in against him and he did not want to go on until he knew what he had to answer. He had been brought up on charges, but those had not been proved, and he had nothing to answer. Fred Smith then presented his answer to the charges, which was as follows:

"In answering the said charges preferred against me by the Chief of Police of said city, of date June 21st, 1887, I say that the information charged to have been given by me in said charges specified was given while I was testifying as a witness before the Commissioners, duly sworn to tell the truth, and what I said was the truth and on the demand of said Commissioners, and I was bound to and did tell the truth; and I further state that I never did endeavor to show that Chief Skinner was being recompensed by the gamblers of this city to allow them to proceed with their games."

Signed, FRED SMITH.

Chief Skinner said that the testimony given at the former meeting tended to make the public believe that he had been standing in with the gamblers and he had no evidence to offer but Mr. Smith's statement on the former occasion.

Mayor Workman in response to questions by Fred Smith said that he had asked Fred Smith to make the statement in the Commission.

Mr. Breed said that perhaps Chief Skinner based his charges partially on what had been said in certain newspapers.

Fred Smith said he was willing to meet anything which might be brought against him. Charges had been preferred against him and he wanted it shown that he had ever told anyone the secret workings of the office or had ever said that the Chief had taken a $5 piece from anybody.

Chief Skinner replied that what he said in the Commission tended to show or to lead people to believe that such was the case.

Mayor Workman said that he had asked for the statement and had wanted to hear it.

Fred Smith said that he wanted to be treated fairly and did not want to be suspended for telling what the Commission had asked him to tell.

No more evidence being introduced the Commission went into executive session, in which the following was ordered spread on the minutes:

Charges having been preferred against Officer F. Smith by Chief Skinner the Commissioners met to investigate the same. Owing to the peculiar wording of the charges the Commissioners decide that the proof is not sufficient to sustain the same.

The resignation of Fred C. Smith was received and accepted, the same to take effect the 21st day of June.

W. T. Bowler received the appointment made vacant by the resignation of Fred C. Smith. Daniel Lynch was appointed special, vice Bowler appointed regular.

The salary of Fred C. Smith was ordered paid to June 21st and the Board adjourned.

The Kohler & Frohling Place

Yesterday an offer of $75,000 was made for the Kohler & Frohling place, below Seventh street. There are nearly nineteen acres in the tract. The offer was refused, as it is the intention to subdivide and sell the tract in residence lots. Mr. Charles Kohler will go to San Francisco to-day and return with his mother. They will be met here by Mr. Bohrmann, of New York, Mr. Kohler's brother-in-law, and a consultation will be held. The winery will be removed to another place, outside of the city, and the subdivision of the tract will not in the least interfere with the crushing of grapes by this firm during the coming season. Mr. Kohler expects to have steam up in the winery by the 10th of August.

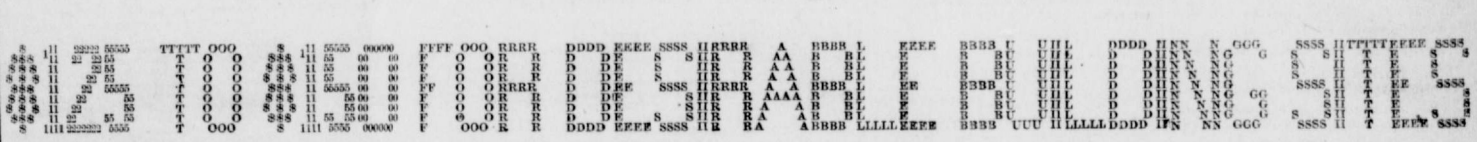

A Chinese Row.

Two followers of Confucius yesterday afternoon became engaged in a dispute near the Sixth-street baseball grounds, which they proceeded to settle according to the Pekin prize ring. They were both feather-weights, both game, and both possessed of a choice collection of expletives in their own language. There was no timekeeper nor umpire, but they got along very well without these authorities, and it would no doubt have been a fight to a finish had they not been espied by the denizens of a washee-washee house near by who turned out in great force and separated the warring combatants. A retreat was sounded and ere the arrival of any minion of the law could take place, a calm, holy peace shed its effulgence over the battle ground.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Frank Ayers Convicted of Killing Cowles' Baby.

The case of Frank Ayers, charged with the murder of the Cowles baby, came up for trial before Judge Cheney yesterday morning. The testimony offered was similar to that at the inquest and at the preliminary examination. Ex-Officer P. W. Deckman reported that he had seen Frank Ayers, after having a fight with Pedro Garcia, strike at Mrs. Cowles and hit the baby, which was in her arms, on the left side of its head and on its side. Pedro Garcia testified that he did not see Ayers strike the baby, but that Mrs. Cowles dropped it during the fracas. W. G. Miller testified that he had witnessed the whole fight, but had not seen Ayers strike the baby. Defendant Frank Ayers testified that he had not struck the baby, and that he had no trouble with Mrs. Cowles on that day. Mrs. Cowles testified that Ayers had not hit the baby, and thought it died from injuries received while she was being dragged out of the house by the officer. The jury in the case, after deliberating for half an hour, returned a verdict finding Frank Ayers guilty of manslaughter.

The Central Baptist Church.

On the 14th of June the Central Baptist Church of Los Angeles completed the second year of its existence as a church. At the time of organization the membership numbered 18. Not one of this number ever had been connected with any religious body in this city. This church did not spring "from the root" of any one church, but was the result of a spontaneous union of Baptists from different parts of the United States. The present number is 156. Most of the accessions, like the constituent members, brought their letters from distant localities. The church owns a valuable lot in the central portion of the city, and at no distant day expects to own its own house of worship.

THE UNIVERSITY.

The Meeting of the Council—A Reception.

The University Council met yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the new building. After an appropriate prayer by Dr. Bresee, Judge R. M. Widney, President of the Council, explained the method in which the financial affairs of the University are handled, and said that the great object was to carry the education to the masses, so that home influences might be united and that all might be given the advantage of the higher educational facilities offered by the various departments.

The President of the University, Rev. M. M. Bovard, then delivered the annual address on the plane of the University for promoting secondary education. Dr. Thompson was the next speaker. Judge R. M. Widney announced that ten-minute speeches were in order. Professor Dickinson followed. The speaker deprecated the tendency of the time to put aside the studies of Greek and Latin, and to replace them with other studies. He said that Greek and Latin were the substructure of all human learning. "Why," said he, "when I was Dickenson, and the dignified Judge on the platform was plain Bob Widney, and we were pounding away at Homer and going for Cicero, we were laying solid foundations, and in him, at least, the training shows." The speaker referred to the wonderful improvements of the last twenty years in the methods of teaching, and said that they at least equalled the improvements in the arts and sciences. "The directors have informed me that I have been elected curator of the museum. I have one suggestion to make, that curator be spelt creator. In our museum we have a stuffed snake skin, a pair of deer's horns, 5000 minerals, abounding hopes and great expectations. I hereby call upon every Southern California ranchero, every proprietor and every incipient town builder to send in specimens. In our library we have about 200 volumes of public documents, and not much else. We need $10,000 to put into a library, to buy books, and not old government reports that have no more to do with the education of young men than Darwin's monkey has with the man in the moon. We want to give the young man a refuge from those corking cares that mean the least when they clatter the loudest.

Rev. Mr. Golburn, Presiding-Elder of the San Diego district, next spoke encouragingly and hopefully of the schools in his county. He said that in a very short time San Diego county will be a Methodist empire. Prof. Shrader of the chair of chemistry and physics said his department sadly needed implements, having had this year only a wooden toothpick and a jack-knife.

Judge Widney then called for reports from the schools of the various districts, and Mr. Chase, of San Diego, one of the gentlemen who made reports, in the course of his remarks said that the greatest danger to our Republic is the fact that the Bible is being pushed out of our schools.

The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year: President, Judge R. M. Widney; Vice-President, Mr. Chase, of San Diego; and Secretary, Mr. Roberts. Mr. Bresee was appointed by the President to deliver next year's annual address.

The financial report shows the University to be very solidly backed. There is $100,000 in interest-bearing funds and over $1,500,000 in bonds not yet sold.

A RECEPTION.

The alumnæ of the university on last evening tendered a most delightful reception at the residence of Dr. Sinsabaugh to the graduating class, which consists of the following members: Frank Sigler, Frank E. Robinson, Helen P. Barnett, Fannie Tarr, Sadie Johnson, Lily Marker, Bertha Lindley, Jesse W. Curtis, Lena S. Tufts, Rosa Harrison. Miss Emma Sinsabaugh entertained in a most charming manner, and the occasion was one which will linger long in the memory of the young graduates. The beautiful residence was decorated with rare taste, and the collation was enjoyed by those present.

CATARRH!

Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma

CONSUMPTION,

Together with diseases of the

Eye, Ear and Heart;

Successfully treated by

M. Hilton Williams, M. D., M.C.P.S.O.

No. 275 Main Street,

A Few Doors South of the New Postoffice,

LOS ANGELES, CAL.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most Improved Medicated Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Over 75,000 cases treated during the past twenty years for some form of head, throat or lung trouble.

CATARRH

To those who are afflicted with any of the different forms of Catarrh, we would say, there is no disease which presents a greater diversity of symptoms, none more loathsome insidious and dangerous than Nasal Catarrh, especially if complicated, as it almost always is, even from its first appearance, with an affection of the throat.

From the earliest symptoms (which are generally attributed to a "cold in the head") to the various ugly and distressing stages through which the disease passes, the patient is hopeful of recovery, and rarely gives it proper attention until certain alarming symptoms present themselves, denoting unmistakably the rapid advance of the malady to the lungs. Indeed, so various are the symptoms that the presence of the disease is not always known or even suspected, until it has reached a stage difficult to arrest. The disease may or may not be attended by a discharge from the nostrils or throat, but there is usually present a morbid secretion and a frequent disposition (especially in the morning) to clear the throat, and the effort to do so is often, though not always, attended by expectoration; there is a sensation of heaviness in the frontal part of the head, and the brain sometimes suffers to an extent producing headache, vertigo and confusion; it becomes difficult to think clearly, and to concentrate the mind; the memory becomes impaired and the intellect enfeebled; despondency of spirit and an excitable condition of the nervous system. Such is the effect of the disease, and if to this train of symptoms (which not infrequently leads to to insanity or idiocy) we add many of the more loathsome physical effects, as casties, or rottenness of the bones of the face and head, a most offensive smell to the breath, and corrupt, morbid and poisonous secretions, destruction or the serious injury of the sense of smell, hearing, sight and taste, we have a catalogue of horrors which would lead any person to make early and proper efforts to eradicate the disease from the system. Every case of Catarrh is curable if properly treated.

BRONCHITIS.

Acute Bronchitis is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the bronchial tuues, and is one of the most common of the pulmonary diseases. It is a dangerous disease, as it prevents the oxygenation of the blood, and in many cases, particularly after it passes into the chronic stage, the substance of the lungs becomes seriously involved, giving rise to what is very properly called Bronchial Consumption. In the acute form there is a sense of tightness or pressure across the chest, with considerable wheezing, severe coughs and expectoration. This is at first a white glary mucous, which, after a time, becomes purulent. The patient in some cases is obliged to sit up in bed, the oppression across the chest is so great; the skin is clammy and prostration rapidly sets in, and in fatal cases there will be muttering delirium, coma and death.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Chronic Bronchitis is also an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes. When a cold settles on the lungs the disease either ends in bronchitis or pneumonia. If it ends in bronchitis it usually passes off as a cold on the chest, and still the patient does not feel entirely well. He feels tired and languid, and is incapable of taking his usual amount of exercise, and experiences a shortness of breath with more or less warmth in the palms of his hands. Soon after this a cough appears, accompanied by an expectation of thick mucus, followed by a hectic flush, loss of flesh and strength and night sweats continue, when the patient assumes all the appearances of having a genuine case of consumption. But this is simply catarrh of the lungs or chronic bronchitis.

In the later stage of the disease the mucus membrane of the larger bronchial tube softens, while in the smaller tubes and air cells of the lungs the mucus membrane becomes congested and inflammed. There are no cavaties nor tubercles in the lungs, but merely a wasting away of the larger bronchial tubes, and death takes place from obstruction of the bronchial tubes and air cells of the lungs. The patient dies from exhaustion and suffocation, being unable to expectorate the mucus which accumulates in the passage leading to the lungs, which in some cases is sticky and small in quantity, but more commonly copious, of a light straw or yellowish green. Oftentimes streaks of blood make their appearance in the mucus, and at times there is a disagreeable smell. Persons thus afflicted are very liable to take a cold, at which time the mucus becomes clear and frothy, and it is not uncommonly the case that the patient dies in one of these attacks

CONSUMPTION.

From consumers, "to waste away," usually applied to the advanced stage of lung disease.

The following are prominent symptoms in the first stage, and wherever any of them exist a thorough examination should be made, with a view to arresting the disease as shown to exist: There is usually a sense of weariness upon a little exercise, a disposition to remain passive and idle, despondency, often from no apparent cause, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of cold, and a breathlessness upon moving quickly or descending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, excitability upon slight occasions, flying pains through the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are more noticeable toward or during the night, slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet or hands, or, in many cases, blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger-nails.

Constitutional or tubercular consumption is a common form of lung disease. The progress is slow, but if left to itself is no less sure. It usually begins with a dry cough. At first these tubercles are exceedingly minute, the patient not at all suspecting their presence. Gradually they develop into more active disease, and then follows the train of symptoms which leaves no doubt as to its true character. Sometimes spitting of blood or slight streaks in the mucus is the first indication of tubercular deposits, or it may be a chilly sensation in the back, followed by more or less heat in the palms of the hands, or an afternoon flush on the cheeks. The slow and gradual inroads of this form of consumption leave the stomach and appetite undisturbed for a considerable time. Finally, however, hectic fever and night sweats supervene, preceded by diarrhoea. Then the loss of flesh and strength becomes rapid, the chest contracts, the features sharpen, the eye attains an unusual brilliancy and the patient begins to realize that he is in the last stage of confirmed constitutional consumption.

Inhalations are applicable to all disease of the respiratory organs, including catarrh, throat diseases, asthma, bronchitis, consumption, and thousands of cases can be cured by this mode of treatment when nothing else can cure them.

We would particularly urge upon our eastern friends the necessity of direct medication—inhalation—as well as the most favorable climatic influences, if you wish to avoid the sad experience of hundreds of invalids who depend on the climate alone, as nine cases out of ten die in consequence of this very thing.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in disolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.
